RE: United States v. Joshua Adam Schulte
SZ 17 cr. 543(PAC)

Honorable Judge Crotty:

I file this short letter motion to ask this Court to grant me access to basic case law and citations that are available to AUSAs. The MCL provides access to a restricted LEXUS NEXIS portal that does not include filings, briefs, Modern Search, or the ability to print. I am limited to this 5ft x 5 ft. cage for one hour each weekday, although currently it is broken and unavailable.

I believe that I am entitled, under the Fifth and Sixth Amendments, to full access to court filings, briefs, and court opinions. I ask this Court to provide me with a LEXUS NEXIS or Westlaw offline portal (whichever service the government contracts or is easiest to procure) that I may have the same access to these materials as the government. Since this Court has also authorized the procurement of a laptop for my discovery review, I ask that this portal be installed on the laptop for continuous access and for quarterly updates to be mailed to me (the MCL's LEXUS NEXIS operated like this, and quarterly updates should be sufficient).

Thanks,

4/12/21

Joshua Adam Schulte, pro se
Paul Schulte

Mr. Schulte's request, dated April 12, 2021, for access to additional legal research, including court filings, briefs, modern searches, and the ability to print, is DENIED. SO ORDERED.

Paul A. Crotty
